

The Farmingville Hills Chamber of Commerce, Inc. recognizes that it is “time to make a difference” and is offering a $500 scholarship to 2 (two) Sachem East High School Seniors.

To be eligible, the student must be:

- Graduating from Sachem East this spring.
- Attending an accredited college, vocational, or trade school in the fall (if selected, they will need to provide us with a letter of acceptance from the school they plan to attend).

There are two ways to enter:

OPTION 1

1. Record a 3-5 minute video telling us what it means to you to “make a difference” in the Farmingville Community.
2. Upload the video to YouTube and tag the video with the keywords: Farmingville, Chamber, Make a Difference
3. Share the link on the Chamber’s Facebook page:
Facebook.com/FarmingvilleHillsChamber (You will need to “Like” the Farmingville Hills Chamber in order to post a link.)

OPTION 2

1. Write a 750 word essay telling us what it means to you to “make a difference” in the Farmingville Community.
2. Email the essay to Info@farmingvillechamber.com.

All uploads with links must be shared and written submissions must be sent by Wednesday, May 3rd. The winners will be chosen by Wednesday, May 10th. The Chamber’s officers will choose 1 written essay and 1 video submission. The winners will be announced on the Chamber’s Facebook page.
